Grow Succession Crops In The Garden.

To get the best results from a garden, the land should be kept constantly producing thruout the season. Whenever an early crop is removed a later one should be grown in its place, according to horticulturists at the University of Missouri College of Agriculture. The following crops

SENATOR CARTER M. BUFORD Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant-Governor

Carter M. Buford is State Senator from the Twenty-fourth district. He was born at Ellington, Reynolds county, on March 3, 1876, and was educated in the public schools and at the Cape Girardeau Normal. Senator Buford is a lawyer, with offices at Ellington where he resides. He was elected school commissioner of Reynolds county in 1897 and 1898, and was circuit clerk and recorder from 1899 to 1906. Buford was first elected to the State Senate in 1906 and has been re-elected for three successive terms. During the Forty-eighth General Assembly he was President pro-tem of the Senate. During the Fiftieth General Assembly he served as chairman of the Committees on Elections, Constitutional Amendments and Permanent Seat of Government, and was a member of the Committees on Appropriations, Code Revision, Elected Institutions, Children's Code Revision, Roads and Highways, and Clerical Force.

Senator Buford aspires to the position of Lieutenant-Governor of Missouri and respectfully submits the question to the Democratic voters of the State at the coming Primary Election.—Adv.

may be of the same species or of a different species. A succession of radishes may be grown on the same ground by reseeding parts of the row as fast as the radishes are used. Lettuce may be grown in the same way. In the southern part of the state an early crop of potatoes may be followed by a potato crop for winter. Seed from the first crop may be used to plant the second. Early sweet corn may be followed by winter cabbage or celery set in early July or by turnips sown broadcast the last of July. Beets, particularly in this climate, become woody with age and lose their crispness and sweet flavor. Those to be started for winter should not be planted earlier than the first of July. Carrots are a delicious garden vegetable when young. One reason why they are not more often grown for winter storage is because they are usually planted in early spring, and by autumn they become so woody as to be unpalatable. Carrots for keeping over winter should be started in July.

Where good tillage is given, the ground following an early crop will be in the best possible condition for a second crop. The early crop shades the ground keeping it mellow; its permeating roots fit the soil for the rooting of the following crop; tillage of the former crop conserves moisture and kills weeds; the second crop requires less labor than the first or, in other words, a part of the benefits of tillage given the first crop is bestowed upon the second. On poor soils where a single crop uses most of the available plant food, the foregoing statements may not hold fully true. On rich soils they are to be emphasized.

Succession cropping can be made much more effective if a hot bed or cold frame is available in which to start a supply of plants to set in the garden whenever space is made available.

Home Study Course.

Former service men of Iron County will be glad to learn that a number of new courses have been added to the standard Home Study Correspondence courses of the United Y. M. C. A. schools, in which free scholarships are being awarded to men discharged from U. S. military and naval service. For men interested in agriculture, courses in Farm Management, and Soils and Fertilizers are now ready. In addition applications may now be received for rural engineering courses, such as, Concrete Construction for the Farm, Farm Water Supply, Farm Drafting, Farm Drainage and Chemistry of Farm Practices.

These courses are in addition to the usual standard correspondence school courses, and are offered with a view to preparing the country boy for a future towards which he has a natural bent. Special effort will be made to assist him in choosing courses according to his needs.

The aim of the Y. M. C. A. Educational Service for demobilized men is to reach the greatest possible number of ex-service men ambitious to continue their education, and who show earnestness to complete the courses for which they desire to enroll. The courses are also available to others not former service men at standard prices.

Among the regular Y. M. C. A. correspondence courses for which free scholarships are being awarded are included electrical, mechanical and drawing, steam, civil and structural engineering, commerce, pure and applied mathematics and such miscellaneous courses as refrigeration, farm motors and thirty courses in civil service.

Des Arc Items.

We had some good weather the past week.

Lumber and tie hauling has slackened up as the farmers are plowing.

Mrs. Geo. Caste, nee Beulah Cooper, returned to her home in West Plains last week.

Dorris Cooper has returned to St. Louis after visiting her parents here.

Mrs. McKee, Morris McKee and Mrs. Drury visited in St. Louis last week. Mrs. J. S. O'Neal of Poplar Bluff accompanied them.

Our teachers and pupils of Des Arc school attended the Athletic contest at Ironton last Saturday. They report that Paul Hughes of Ironton carried off the prizes.

H. White, our big farmer near Brunot, has bought Munro Wilson's farm for $40,000. This farm was sold several years ago for $10,000.

Mrs. Chas. Russell of Brunot is quite sick.

I want to say on behalf of our Baptist Sunday School that we thank our Methodist brethren and sisters very much for allowing us to hold Sunday School services in their church, while painting our church house.

Potatoes are so high our farmers will not plant half a crop.

Our wire gang is now up as far as Vulcan. We will miss them.

Green Brooks has bought the handle factory at Piedmont. He is spreading out and now owns an interest in three factories.

J. W. Robinson & Son are turning out fine log wagons; sell them on the Missouri Southern Railroad.

ISAAC.

From Goodland.

Not much gardening done yet. No plowing for corn. Some few have their oats sowed and onions planted.

Grandma Larue fell some days ago and dislocated her right arm. Dr. Parker, of Dillard was called and replaced the bone so that the old lady is doing fairly well.

James Sutterfield, a lumber man, was seen at Goodland lately.

Bennett Moore, of Muse, Oklahoma, was the guest of relatives at Goodland a few days lately. He brought his two daughters with him. They will stay probably all summer with their cousin N. W. Adams and study music.

Clifford Adams spent the week-end

NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK STOVES

A Kitchen Triumph!

Umm—the savory delight of good cooking! You know that everything is "done to a turn" and deliciously cooked on the New Perfection Oil Cook Stove.

The Long Blue Chimney Burner gives just the right heat for all cooking purposes—turns every drop of kerosene oil into clean intense heat and drives it full force, directly against the utensil.

Lights and heats instantly—flame stays where set—no smoke or odor. It keeps the kitchen comfortable—makes cooking a delight—that's why there are already 3,000,000 users.

Ask to see a demonstration of the Long Blue Chimney Burner—particularly the high searing flame.

with his brother, Randolph, at De Soto.

Dr. Robinson, of Belgrade, was called to see the little daughter of G. G. Adams, who has pneumonia.

There was a pie supper at Charley Anderson's Monday night.

The attendance at Sunday School last Sunday was small owing to the rainy day.

The peach and plum trees were ready to bloom out but the freeze had damaged them so that we fear the crop will be light.

Mrs. Dr. Adams does not improve much.

News is scarce.
